OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Dated Aizawl, the 8th July, 2010

The question of whether Govt. servants who are voluntary blood donors donating blood to recognized Blood Banks on working day should be granted any facilities by way of Special Casual Leave has been under consideration. Taking into account the need to encourage and promote voluntary blood donation, the Govt. of Mizoram has therefore decided to order that -

1) Govt. servants who voluntarily donate blood to recognised Blood Banks on a working day may be granted Special Casual Leave on the day of blood donation.

2) Special Casual Leave granted on the above ground shall be allowed to be combined with ordinary Casual Leave only, but not with regular leave.

3) The power of granting Special Casual Leave on the above ground shall be exercised by the Head of Department/Office concerned.

This order shall come into force with immediate effect.
